Police – March 12th career day at the Jr/Sr high. House watch forms now available can be completed and turned into the PD when residents are going to be away for a time. Form will be added to the website so they can be down loaded. Forms will be kept in the borough office and the PD office. Info will be put in the newsletter to inform residents. OIC Yaskiewicz received resume from Mark Kessler not being considered just wanted to inform council. In the process of preparing forms for PennDot for the 4th of July Parade. Need authorization from council allowing the parade. OIC Yaskiewicz working on a mutual aid agreement with John Swank – Greenwood Twp. PD to allow Millville PD to respond to calls at the stadium and school in Greenwood Township when they do not have an officer on duty. Hope to have this completed by the March meeting.

Motion by Jen Rine 2nd by Charlie Hartzel. Motion carried.

Motion: Approve OIC Yaskiewicz to complete paperwork for the annual 4th of July Parade.

Emergency Management - There was a small incident on 02/16/15. A trailer came undone on the roadway at Leighow's, Hemlock Twp. PD assisted.

Street Committee – Roads will need to be checked when the weather breaks. See what roads will need work completed.

Sewer/Water Committee – Discussion on the property at 25 N State St. Zenzel properties had a water leak and it has been confirmed that it did not go into the sewer. Requesting relief for the sewer bill. As has been past practice the sewer will be averaged and a credit will be given for the sewer portion of the bill only.
